

Web developers work with computers, using languages of code, on a daily basis; this is what much of their job revolves around.

<h1>Web Developers</h1>

<h2>Do you like technology, design and problem solving? Then the job of web developer will most definitely appeal to you!</h2>

Web developers are responsible for creating the structure of websites and maintaining existing ones. They work closely with web designers to ensure a website looks good and is functional.

<h2>Why should you choose web developing?</h2>

- Work from home, from the office, or anywhere a computer can travel!
- Earn over $80,000 each year!
- Opportunities to travel around the world to meet with clients.
- Have the option to work for a company, or to start your own business.

<h3>Be part of a rapidly evolving industry with many new technologies and opportunities in huge demand!</h3>

Web developers work closely with web designers and system administrators, having a large effect on the design and maintenance of websites.

